

ADELAIDE HEALTH FOUNDATION

WHAT IS THE ADELAIDE HEALTH FOUNDATION?

The Adelaide Health Foundation [AHF] is an independent charity focussed on advancing and promoting equitable access to healthcare services and education in Ireland.

AHF MISSION

We are a voluntary Foundation committed to supporting education and research to advance and promote equitable access to healthcare services in Ireland, with a particular focus on Tallaght University Hospital and the community it serves.

AHF STRATEGY TO END 2025

The Adelaide Health Foundation's strategy is based on three pillars:

- Improving healthcare in the local community
- Delivering actionable healthcare research
- Supporting access to education for healthcare staff

PILLAR 1 - Improving healthcare in the local community

OBJECTIVES

- Supporting innovative solutions for the supply of healthcare services in the Tallaght area
- Funding integrated care in projects between Tallaght community primary care & hospital

PILLAR 2 - Delivering actionable healthcare research

OBJECTIVES

- Funding healthcare research in line with AHF mission, vision and values
- Driving the implementation of research recommendations

PILLAR 3 - Supporting access to education for healthcare students and staff

OBJECTIVES

- Support student nurse attraction & retention
- Improved educational opportunities for all healthcare students
